The 29th Annual Salvatore R. and Anna E. Beltrone Golf Classic returns in full swing on September 12th, at the Schuyler Meadows Club in Loudonville. This day brings together a full field of golfers and many golf enthusiasts, all gathering to support Colonie Senior Service Centers, Inc. (CSSC) Transportation Services Program.

Providing seniors transportation has never been more important as many seek to get back to a sense of normalcy. The CSSC’s Transportation Services Program enables older adults to get to medical appointments, senior community dining sites, social adult day service programs, volunteer opportunities throughout the Capital Region, the pharmacy, the grocery store, social and life-long learning activities, as well as community and cultural events and run errands. In a typical year, CSSC’s Transportation Services Program provides over 25,000 rides throughout the Capital Region to seniors with our fleet of 12 vehicles.

If you would like to support The Beltrone Golf Classic and CSSC’s Transportation Services Program, but are not a golfer, we have many opportunities for you:

- Sponsor a Tee Sign
- Purchase an advertisement in The Beltrone Golf Classic Program
- Bid on an item or two in The Beltrone Golf Classic online auction by visiting www.colonieseniors.org/
- Purchase tickets to The Beltrone Golf Classic Dinner

Message from the Executive Director

Happy September! Happy Fall!

This summer my husband Joe and I had the incredible opportunity to spend an overnight at the historic Wiawaka on the eastern shore of Lake George. I had visited the site about ten years previous when a friend invited me to tour the restoration work she was doing on one of its historic buildings. Fast forward to 2019 when CSSC began THE CENTER, I knew Wiawaka was one location we had to organize a group visit to which we did earlier this summer.

Considered the oldest and longest continuously operating retreat for women in America, Wiawaka was created by the daughter of a wealthy Troy industrialist, Mary Fuller, in 1903. Mary used her position and wealth to help the young female textile workers employed as shirt collar makers, laundresses and millworkers most notably in Troy and Cohoes by providing a reprieve.

At the beginning of the twentieth century, Troy was at the time known as “The City of Women” because so many women were working in the garment industry. Wiawaka made it possible for these women to escape the city and enjoy affordable vacations in Lake George. Room and board for these women cost $3.50 per week.

In addition to loving history and preservation, Wiawaka holds some personal interest for me as well. You see, my paternal grandmother Catherine, who was born on June 7, 1902 on Mann Avenue in South Troy and only educated until the eighth grade, was one of those garment workers. She did not marry until she was 28 so spent a decade and a half employed in a grueling factory setting. I remember her distinctly reminiscing about her time spent working for Cluett Peabody & Company, a longtime manufacturer of shirts, and detachable shirt cuffs and collars. She shared her memories about the working conditions in the factory, incredible long hours and demanding bosses.

All that reminiscing didn’t hit me until I realized while spending time at Wiawaka what these factory women endured. With no voice and very few options, I can only imagine the dreams and hopes unmet. Two generations and a century detached, my conscience was pricked to give proper homage to the strong women who came before me and not to underestimate or undervalue someone’s sacrifices made.

We hope to see you at our Labor Day Concert on September 5 and Chefs in Motion on September 19.

Regards,

– Diane Conroy-LaCivita

September Spotlight – Meet Executive Chef Brayden

Everyday, The Beltrone Living Centers offers lunches, dinners and special event meals prepared on-site under the direction of Executive Chef Brayden Bennison. He delivers tasteful and creative food time and again. Join us for lunch or a special event meal to enjoy the “fruit” of Chef Brayden’s gift for food preparation. It is a delicious experience!

Name: Brayden Bennison, Executive Chef
Prime at The Beltrone Living Center, Mazzone Hospitality

Grew up: Pittstown, NY

Training: Tamarac High School, Learned to Chef- “on the job”

Other Interests? Engaged to be married, Craft/Micro-breweries, outdoor activities like kayaking, tubing, and walking around small towns/exploring new areas.

Even as a young child growing up on a farm, Brayden says he always loved food. As a high school athlete, he ate to refuel and enjoyed cooking for his older brothers. Brayden’s first job was picking garlic. Perhaps this role planted the seed for good flavors in his cooking? His mom had a friend, a Chef by trade, who was injured and became disabled. Brayden began helping him around his house and with his meal preparation. He credits this experience to his becoming a Chef. Brayden learned how to use all kinds of ingredients, make sauces, etc. from the knowledge that was shared by this friend, and at 15 years old, he was cooking like a person, years older. At 16, he accepted a job with Burger King and learned a great deal about the “back end” of a restaurant and an appreciation for sanitation. Experience and drive led Brayden to work at Cracker Barrel and Albany Med where he grew in his knowledge and skills. Finally, a position opened with Prime at Mazzone leading Brayden to The Beltrone Living Center. After working under 2 different chefs for the past 6 years, Brayden earned the top spot of Executive Chef. He continues to grow his trade and enjoys experimenting with new flavors, ingredients, recipes, and ideas. Brayden says, “There is something great about continuing to experiment with food. It’s a lot of fun!”

On August 15th at the former site of the Colonie Elks Lodge, Carl Heastie, Speaker of the New York State Assembly and Phillip Steck, New York State Representative announced that New York State has committed two million dollars to the proposed expansion of the King Thiel Campus.

ESL Classes Being Offered at The Beltrone by CSSC and USCR

Starting in September and in collaboration with USCR Albany (U.S. Committee for Refugees and Immigrants), CSSC is thrilled to announce that we will be offering English as a Second Language (ESL) classes at The Beltrone Living Center.

The term ‘English as Second Language’ (ESL) has traditionally referred to individuals who speak languages other than English at home. We envision this initiative as a wonderful partnership since CSSC’s mission is to support seniors stay active, healthy, and independent and USCR’s is to help refugees become self-sufficient, contributing members of our community.

With more and more non-English speaking seniors coming to CSSC events and programs, the timing was just right to provide such programming. Classes will start September 13th, and will be held twice a month. For further information, please call Diane at 518-459-2857 ext. 305.

THE CENTER at CSSC

Here at THE CENTER at CSSC, we believe in lifelong learning. We also believe in adventure, fun and camaraderie. We did a whole lot of those things this summer, with trips to The ballet at SPAC, birdwatching, Grafton Lakes, Jersey Boys, Van Gogh Immersive Exhibit, Mass MOCA, Wine Tasting and so much more. In September, there are opportunities for new experiences and all of the good things that go along with that.

We’ll also walk along the beautiful Highline Park and have time to find lunch in Chelsea. The trip is on Wednesday, September 21 and the bus leaves The Beltrone Living Center at 7:45 a.m. and returns at approximately 6:00 p.m. Cost is $125 for members of THE CENTER and $140 for not-yet-members.

Another event you might be interested in is a walking tour of the historic Van Schaick Golf Club. The club was founded in 1895. Today, the 18-hole course is a place of beauty, with towering trees and astounding views. Come hear the story of its history and learn about the landscape with Conor Fitzgerald, the longtime groundskeeper of the club. This event is on Monday, September 19. The bus leaves The Beltrone Living Center at 10:00 a.m. and returns at approximately noon. The event costs $10 for members and $15 for not-yet-members.

There are many more opportunities to learn, grow and make connections with people at THE CENTER at CSSC. Please call Caroline at 518-459-2857 ext. 327 to hear about creative, fitness and other travel events.
